

Sonoma County California Releases RFP for the Evaluation of AB 109 Funded Programs

Sonoma County criminal justice partners seek to evaluate the implementation and effectiveness of interventions intended to reduce recidivism by realigned offenders and other offenders under probation supervision. The County seeks to contract with an evaluator with broad and successful experience in conducting evaluations of multiple criminal justice and human service programs and interventions that make up the service continuum for the criminal justice system, and overall criminal justice system effectiveness in achieving public safety outcomes.
